

As IB Learners We Strive To Be:

Inquirers

We nurture our curiosity, develop skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life.

University faculties regularly note IB students' passion for discovery.

Knowledgeable

We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

IB students are extraordinarily well prepared for the academic requirements of university coursework.

Thinkers

We use critical and creative thinking skills to analyse and take responsible action on complex problems. We exercise initiative in making reasoned, ethical decisions.

IB students contribute to discussions in a meaningful way. They do not shy away from challenging questions and, once they know the answer, follow up by asking "why?"

Communicators

We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

IB students regularly deliver stimulating presentations and drive excellence in group assignments.

Principled

We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

IB students are infused with the academic integrity that is a fundamental value of universities and colleges.

Open-Minded

We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view, and we are willing to grow from the experience.

IB students have a deep understanding of various cultures and views, bringing an appreciation of new views to both their academic study and their involvement in

Caring

We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service, and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

Risk-Takers

We approach uncertainty with forethought and determination; we work independently and cooperatively to explore new ideas.
